Visit www.OAH.org/benefits for more information on these and many other membership benefits.

Sponsored Memberships

Give your students (high school, collegiate, and graduate), interns, and recent graduates not yet employed full-time a head start on their careers through the OAH Sponsored Member program. Sponsoring a student member is only $35 (for membership expiring Oct. 31, 2018) and provides a foundation for the student's American history career. For more information, please contact the OAH at 812-855-7311 or membership@oah.org.

Subscriptions

Add even more benefit to your OAH membership. The following subscriptions are available and run concurrently with the OAH membership year (Nov. 1 - Oct. 31).

- Discounted subscription to The History Teacher. OAH members receive 15 percent off the list price of the Society for History Education's quarterly journal, The History Teacher. (Additional shipping fee applies for members residing outside the United States.)
- JSTOR: Access to OAH publications through JSTOR. Includes the complete run of the Mississippi Valley Historical Review (1914–1964), the Journal of American History (1964–2011), and the OAH Magazine of History (1985–2011).
- American Council of Learned Societies Humanities E-Book: Subscribers receive unlimited access to nearly 3,700 full-text, cross-searchable titles in the humanities and social sciences from the 1800s through the present.
- Community College Humanities Association: OAH members can join CCHA at a discounted rate.

Contributions

The OAH is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Your donations further support the OAH publications and programs, as well as its advocacy for the profession. You may indicate a specific fund for your donation by writing the fund next to your contribution amount; gifts made without a designation are submitted to the General Operating Fund.

- General Operating Fund: Offsets the operating costs of the organization.
- General Reserve Fund: Covers major capital expenditures.
- Fund for American History: Aids new initiatives and ongoing projects.
- Hata Educational Fund: Promotes the teaching of American history at four-year and community colleges.
- Prize Fund: Supports more than twenty awards, prizes, and grants given in recognition of scholarly and professional achievements in American history.
- Second Century Fund: Funds professional development programs for historians at community colleges.

Membership Policies

Student Membership: Verification of student status is required by either a copy of a current student ID; a copy of a current registration form; or a signature from a graduate adviser or professor.

Postage for International Shipping: Members outside the United States are required to pay an additional fee of $25 per 12-month period, for the shipping and handling of the printed Journal and The American Historian. Members may choose instead to only receive electronic access to the JAH and TAH.

Incorrect Payment Amounts: The OAH office will contact you if your payment amount is incorrect. You are responsible for paying the balance due if your payment was short. In the event that you overpaid, you may either: (1) apply the overage as a donation to the OAH Prize Fund, or (2) apply a credit to next year's membership. In the event that we do not hear from you within 30 days, the overpayment will be applied as a donation.
