“The AP Reading is a one-of-a-kind gathering of educators who inform, enlighten and inspire each other as they engage in the shared task of scoring student work. Richly diverse in their disciplines, their backgrounds, and their expertise, these teachers hail from high school and college campuses from around the nation and beyond; by the end of the Reading, they find that they have indeed formed a lasting, purpose-driven community. Some of my most enduring professional ties were formed at AP Readings, and my commitment to my students deepens each summer that I am privileged to attend.”
