

ORGANIZATION OF American Historians

As a member of the Organization of American Historians, your help is needed to support the professional development of students and recent degree recipients through a sponsored membership. Your sponsorship of the membership dues of these students or young graduates will: 1. introduce scholars to the OAH early in their professional careers; 2. provide networking opportunities for the younger generation that will enhance their long-term job prospects; 3. offer an "intellectual life line" for recent degree recipients (BAs, MAs, or PhDs) who are not employed in academic-related positions. These sponsored memberships receive all of the benefits of OAH membership, including the Journal of American History and The American Historian.
